Office of Legislative Counsel

Monday - 26 November 1956

The Director, accompanied by Messrs. Amory and Paul, participated in a briefing of the House Foreign Affairs Committee with Acting Secretary Hoover, Adm. Radford, and Arthur Flemming. Sixteen Committee members were present. The questioning was not hostile insofar as intelligence was concerned, with the exception of Mrs. Kelly who cited a New York Times article implying that the Soviet Union had better advance intelligence on the hostilities in the Middle East than did the United States. There was no transcript taken of the hearing.
